UCSD Impact Award

The University of California, San Diego is dedicated to learning, teaching, and serving society through education, research, and public service.

This award recognizes individuals for their community-based work, who work at UCSD and make a significant contribution to their community outside of UCSD through public service.

Nomination Form

Section 1: Nominee Information

Name:
Title:
Department:
Phone:
Email:

Section 2: Describe the Actions

You are nominating this person for her or his community-based work, how has the nominee demonstrated an active and meaningful participation in a local or state non-profit community based organization(s) or on their own, resulting in a significant contribution to the community? In general, please describe the actions of the nominee which significantly and positively impacted their community.
UCSD Impact Award

Section 3: Why Actions Matter

In general, please describe why the above actions were significant, how it serves the UCSD’s Principles of Community and why you believe they should be recognized?

Section 4: Creativity

What one-time innovation or creation has this employee originated that has resulted in a significant impact to the community? How did they apply “thinking outside the box” to accomplish their objective and what impact did it have? (e.g., monetary, humanitarian, etc.)
UCSD Impact Award

Section 5: Teamwork

How has the nominee acted as an exceptionally effective and cooperative team member in carrying out goals of a team dedicated to making positive change? How has she or he demonstrated superior interactions with others, and a positive influence on the community?

Section 6: Leadership

How has the nominee demonstrated extraordinary leadership resulting in the accomplishment of significant goals or objectives resulting in community improvement or noteworthy project management?
Section 7: Comments

Please use this section for additional supporting information or comments.

Please submit to: Helen Montgomery UCSD Staff Association Impact Award Chair, by Dec. 5, 2012
hmontgomery@ucsd.edu