Now Live - Material Transfer Agreements in Kuali Research

Material Transfer Agreements (MTA) are live in Kuali Research as of today Monday, October 24, 2022. The addition of Material Transfer Agreements in Kuali Research will significantly improve the ability to track, monitor, and obtain compliance approvals, as well as increase efficiencies and reporting capabilities.

IMPORTANT CHANGES

MTAs are now a new agreement type in the Kuali Research Proposal Development module. Users will utilize the module to create and submit MTA records that will be routed to the central offices for review.

SYSTEM ACCESS
Access to Kuali Research can be found on the MTA Blink page or login into Kuali Research here.

You can use either your Active Directory (AD) or Business Systems credentials to log in, which will require a two-step authentication. For assistance with these logins, visit UC San Diego Accounts and Passwords.

UC San Diego employees who do not currently have access to Kuali Research but need it to request Material Transfer Agreements should follow these Step-by-Step Instructions for requesting access.

TRAINING AND RESOURCES
Specific training related to using Kuali Research for Material Transfer Agreements is available. Click here to register.

CLIENT SUPPORT
For any questions regarding access to or creating the request in Kuali Research, please contact researchadmin@ucsd.edu.
