

UC San Diego Gift and Electronic Receipt Disclosures

Disclosures

This electronic receipt is intended to comply with IRS requirements regarding written donee acknowledgment of gifts and disclosure of any benefits provided to donors in exchange for gifts. All gifts to the Regents of the University of California and the UC San Diego Foundation are tax-deductible, except to the extent that benefits are provided to you in consideration of your gift. No benefits were provided to you in consideration for your gift, unless the gift was for an event, membership, or sponsorship. In that case, it will be disclosed in a printed receipt that will be mailed to you via USPS.

Your gift was given to one of the two charitable entities below, depending on your fund selection.

The Regents of the University of California (Regents) is the formal corporation of the University of California (UC), as set forth in the California State Constitution. It is a public trust, governed by the Board of Regents, organized for the purpose of teaching, research, and public service. Each of the ten separate UC campuses, including UC San Diego, may accept gifts on behalf of the Regents for purposes that benefit the campus. The Regents' tax identification number is 94-3067788.

The UC San Diego Foundation (Foundation) is a California nonprofit public benefit corporation, organized for the purpose of encouraging voluntary private support for the benefit of the UC San Diego campus. Responsibility for the governance of the Foundation is vested in its Board of Trustees. Operations of the Foundation are governed by the Regents via its policy on campus foundations. The UC San Diego Foundation's tax identification number is 95-2872494.

Any restrictive terms and conditions associated with gifts are subject to Regents or Foundation approval.

1977 California information Practices Act Disclosure

UC San Diego is grateful for the support it receives and confidentially maintains information on all its donors. Donor information is housed and administered, both on electronic databases and in hard copy, by Advancement. This information may be provided to other UC San Diego departments in the regular course of their business. Additionally, we may share data on a considered and confidential basis with affiliated organizations and individuals, or as required by law.

You have the right to review your own data files. Inquiries should be forwarded to the Data Manager of Advancement at UC San Diego, 9500 Gilman Drive, Mail Code 0937, La Jolla, CA, 92093-0937 or YourPrivacy@ucsd.edu.

One of the ways we express our thanks to donors is by listing their names in various UC San Diego publications from time to time. Please notify us at the above-noted address or email if you do not want your name listed.
