Objective

The Jorge Rios Scholarship award is designed to support UC San Diego Chicano/Latino Staff Association (CLSA) members for any training activity to develop their full professional potential and to prepare for advancement opportunities or career change within UC system. The maximum amount that can be awarded for each member under this program is $200. Each scholarship awarded may fund (or partially fund) one course or training session. The total amount awarded is subject to availability of funds. The total number of scholarships to be awarded will vary from year to year. Awards will be announced at the General Membership Meeting in June 2019.

The types of support available include:
- Registration fees for courses, seminars, workshops or conferences.
- Books, materials and related supplies.

Eligibility Criteria

- Applicant must be a current, dues-paying member of the UCSD Chicano Latino Staff Association at the time of application and award of professional development.
- Qualified career development training activities include courses, seminars, workshops, and conferences. Items not eligible for scholarship funding are travel or other incidental expenses (such as food, parking, lodging, etc.), and any training paid by or reimbursed from University funds.
- Completion of training activities must occur between July 01, 2018 and May 31, 2019.
- Applicants must complete the application form with all required materials. The application package must be submitted postmarked no later than Friday, May 31, 2019. Late applications will not be accepted.
- Professional development award will be considered only for successful completed training activities. Proof of completion with a passing grade must accompany applications for courses or seminars (i.e., grade report, transcript, acceptance letter, certificate, etc.).
- Original receipts for all expenses eligible for reimbursement must be submitted along with the application.
- Applications will be evaluated based on the information provided; therefore, all questions should be answered as thoroughly as possible. Incomplete applications will not be considered.
- Acceptance of a scholarship award constitutes permission for CLSA to use the recipient’s name, biographical information, and photo for publicity purposes.
- Board members of Chicano/Latino Staff Association are not eligible for a receipt of a scholarship.
- The scholarship check will be made out directly to the recipient.
- All materials submitted become the property of CLSA and will not be returned to the applicant. Upon completion of the applicant cycle-all materials will be shredded and disposed of in order to ensure your privacy and the security of your personal information.
